Once again, I would like to wish all my dear brothers, male and female prisoners in the Israeli occupation prisons, a happy feast.

My love, my life!

[Male voice] Enough! Leave her. Allahu akbar! You have already seen her, leave her!

My love, your children are so happy to see you.

I cannot believe it. I am dreaming. I do not want to speak; I will not be able to speak. I am dreaming. But there is one thing that I would like to say: Nine female prisoners, and the most important one is Lina al-Jarbouni [who was sentenced to] seventeen years.

She has served ten years and seven years are left. She is sending a message to the entire Palestinian people: Why did you forget Lina? Lina asks you why you have forgotten her. How could you? What did Lina do to make you forget her? I left her alone! My life companion! The representative of female prisoners! She has been suffering, and is oppressed, for ten years. No one is left with her. Lina should have been the first to get out. The entire Palestinian people have forgotten her. All the factions, including the Islamic Jihad, Hamas and Fatah, are responsible for forgetting Lina al-Jarbouni. She suffered the utmost oppression.
